"The Blackbird Knows Them All" was the title of the Big Band program in September 2020. The mood that evening was very good, for a long time there was finally a live audience again, it was streamed live and recorded. As a reminder of this beautiful concert, Barbara Bruckmüller has released her first vinyl with four of her compositions. An EP. In a small edition. Now the album was presented live at the place where it was created, at Porgy & Bess, with mostly the musicians who were there in 2020.

This album is dedicated to our horn player Birgit Eibisberger in loving memory.

"This EP forms an anti-freeze against the cold of mainstream arbitrariness. Barbara Bruckmüller's ensemble creates modern jazz with a guarantee of vitality, The principle of individuality and a multi-layered methodology. A modern sound with a dusted-off preservation of tradition, Documented live in the formidable Viennese club Porgy&Bess. 500 pieces of vinyl convey joy of playing, Dynamics and high compositional competence. Big Band, big quality."

- Christian Prenger (STARKSTROM/ Issue #28, August-September 2022)

"Barbara's writing has so much imagination and sophistication. She has instantly become one of my favorite composers and arrangers, and I look forward to watching her rise to stardom in the music world. She's one of the very best."

- Christian McBride (American Bassist, Composer and Grammy Award Winner)
